PRESIDENT APPEALS FOR PARTY SUCCESS IN COMING ELECTION

Declares Return of Republican Majority Would Be Repudiation of Leadership.

LEADERS OF MINORITY
ISSUE FORMAL ANSWER

Say They Have Supported Administration's Policy Since Beginning of War.

DEMAND SHARE IN BURDEN

Mr. Wilson Says if Democrats Are Defeated His Power Will Be Impaired.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, October 25.—President Wilson today issued an appeal to the people to return a Democratic Congress in the November election, saying he approved of his course in this critical period.

Return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress, the President said, would be certainly interpreted on the other side of the water as a "repudiation of my leadership."

The President's action electrified Republicans at the Capitol, who prepared a formal reply in the name of the party leaders in the Senate and House and the chairman of the Senate and House Republican congressional campaign committees.

The Republican statement, declaring the minority party in Congress had supported the administration policy since the war with a unanimity and in party history, pointed to the record as proof.

IT IS NOT PRESIDENTS
"PERSONAL WAR"

The war, the Republican statement contends, is not the President's "personal war," nor the war of Congress, people and democracy, but the war of the people, representing more than half the citizenship of the country, demands a faithful spokesman with me to be checked, the burden and responsibility imposed.

Given a majority in either or both Houses, the Republican party would drive forward the war and hasten victory and would check the "policy" going on of money" given by the nation.

The President said he would accept the minority's verdict without cavil, but that if it were to administer the great trust assigned to him, he would be seriously impaired.

Following is the President's appeal:
"My fellow-countrymen: The congressional elections are at hand. They are the most critical period of the country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beseech you to express your confidence in me by electing a Democratic majority in the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust assigned to me by the Constitution would be seriously impaired should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you, so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No leader can afford to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

NO PARTY IN AVOINT
IN MATTERS OF PATRIOTISM

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, to harbor such an idea. I believe that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperative that every citizen should give his undivided support to the government under a unified leadership. I believe that the Congress would divide the leadership. The leadership of the minority in the present Congress has unquestionably been produced, but the party is not a unit.
At almost every turn since we entered the war they have sought to take the leadership of the nation and put it under the control of instrumentalities of their own choosing.

"This is no time either for divided council or for divided leadership.
Unity of command is as necessary as unity of action. It is upon the field of battle, if the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power, that the opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction.

DESIRE TO CONTROL RATHER THAN SUPPORT PRESIDENT

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would moreover be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. It is the duty of the Republican party to urge you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support my leadership. I believe they should in this important some credulous voters on this side of the water who could impose on me on the other side, I am well understood there, as well as here, that the Republican desire not so much to support the President as to control him.

"The peoples of the allied countries with whom we are fighting are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to understand the attitude of the United States had chosen to support their President by electing a Congress which would not be in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

"I need not ask you, my fellow-countrymen, that I am asking your support, not for my own sake or for the sake of the political party, but for the sake of the nation itself, in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all. I could not feel at liberty to make such an appeal to you. In ordinary times divided councils can be endured without permanent harm to the country. But these are not ordinary times.

"In these critical days it is your wishes to sustain me with undivided minds I beg that you will say so in a way which it will be possible to understand either here or abroad or among our associates on the other side of the water. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

Even Saltcellar Helps to Wage War

That the most common substance has been used to wage war is a fact that is illustrated by the fact that salt, apparently one of the most harmless of substances, is playing a highly important part in the struggle. From it is made hydrochloric acid, which is used in the poison gases which Germany introduced in the battle of Ypres.
It is also used in the manufacture of an interesting story on salt in this column. It is also used in the salt water and something, tells of its use in Great Britain.

CAPITAL POLICE SEEK TO STOP BOOTLEGGING

Liquor Carried to Washington From Baltimore by Negroes, Who

SPECIAL TRAINS ARE PUT ON TO STOP BOOTLEGGING

Management of Electric Line Says It Is Necessary in Order to Protect Decent and Legitimate Traveling Public.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—Major Pulman, head of the Metropolitan police force of the national capital, backed by high government officials and a specialized police, is seeking desperately to break up an enormous bootlegging traffic in the District of Columbia. The bootlegging traffic, which has developed since Washington supposedly went dry about a year ago, the liquor is brought here by individuals, mostly colored, from Baltimore, and disposed of at profits averaging from 100 to 300 per cent.

One notorious offender, upon arrest, admitted that some days he made two trips to Baltimore, and made at least $50 to $80 a day at the business.

The management of the electric line between Washington and Baltimore is being roundly scored for running five special trains to carry bootleggers.
Their report is that it had to be done to protect the decent traveling public from the bootleggers who were being bootlegged from those on legitimate trains.

Under the present conditions, the police to-day photographed one of its special trains. The passengers aboard the five trains were mostly colored, and were carrying heavily laden packages, unquestionably containing the forbidden liquor.

Girls to Become "Property of State"
When They Reach

LONDON, October 25 (British Wire-the jurisdiction of certain provincial governments are to become the "property of the state" when they reach the age of eighteen years and are compelled to register at a government bureau of "free love" according to the official

GRAPPE SITUATION SHOWS NO CHANGE

New Cases Number 144, and Deaths the Same as for Several Days.

WILL NOT ACT PREMATURELY

DANGER HAS PASSED.

Spanish influenza, according to yesterday's reports, is traveling in a straight line. There were 144 new cases—virtually the same number reported every day for the past week.
There were thirty deaths, of which number twenty-five resulted from the epidemic. This is also virtually the same number of deaths occurring every day for about the same length of time.

The condition is such that Dr. Roy K. Flannagan, chief health officer, who had just returned from Charlottesville, made one of his first official acts the calling on the telephone of the commanding officer of Camp Lee and asking him not to lift the quarantine to-day at 1 o'clock against this city. Camp Lee lifts its quarantine at that time to-day. But on account of the request of the City Health Department, the quarantine remains, and the usual 5,000 soldiers from the camp will be kept out of the city.

This city remains, so to speak, quarantined against Camp Lee for at least one more day. The City Health Department is grateful to the military authorities for their co-operation.

city remains, so to speak, quarantined against Camp Lee for at least one more day. The City Health Department is grateful to the military authorities for their co-operation.

The danger does not come down as yet, but the situation is improving. As yet, however, churches, schools, theaters and other places of assembly, which have been closed since the epidemic began, are not to be reopened. The
